The prisoners were taken first to a side room and told that they would have to say good-bye, as the rules of the prison would not permit them to see each other again. Mrs. Floyle threw her arms around "Jimmy's" neck and kissed him. She said: "We must take it the best we can."

Farewell Handshake. The prisoners then shook hands and the matron escorted Mrs. Boyle from the room. When she reached the cor-idor she burst into tears and asked to be permitted once again to see her hasband. This request was granted, and she again kissed and embraced Boyle. The man maintained his allence

When Mrs. Boyle gave her belongings to the matron, she asked permission to keep a small mirror she carried, saying: "I do not want to leave it behind me, as that would make me have seven years of bad luck." The mirror was returned to her and she will be allowed to keep it her cell. Their Prison Numbers.

Boyle's number at the penitentiary is 6621A and that of his wife 6682A. The prisoners will be photographed to-morrow and Hertillon measurements of them will be taken at that time. Boyle and his wife arrived here from Mercer, Pa., escorted by Sheriff Chess, Deputy Thomas Stewart, and Consta-hie Frank Livermore of Mercer coun-ty, and were immediately placed in a patrol wagon and taken to the prison.

Tried to Cheer "Jimmy." During the trip here from Mercer, where they left late this afternoon, the kidnappers spent most of the time in quiet conversation together. They discussed the sentence, which they allege was unjust, and asked what steps they would have to take to get a review of the case, and how to see an attorney. Mrs. Bbyle tried to cheer "Jimmy" and wanted to know if he would be permitted to smoke at the penigentiary.
